SUPPLEMENT TO
REPORT NO. 25X1X

[REDACTED]

25X1C All presidents and secretaries of union cells in the Belgrade III district were called together on [REDACTED] and were informed that conferences would be held on 4 and 5 October 1950 in all union cells at which a special representative of the Communist Party Central Committee would speak on the questions of Yugoslavia's international status and the economic situation in the country.

25X1A

[REDACTED] There may be some significance in the fact that topics such as Yugoslavia's international status and internal shortcomings are being discussed in basic Party units. This appears to be a departure from the usual procedure at Party meetings where topics of discussion are usually confined to organization, indoctrination norms, and recruitment of voluntary labor.
